

Property Eligibility Criteria to be Considered for an Extraterritorial Connection

“Extraterritorial connection of service” means the connection of water or sanitary sewer service to developed property located outside the city limits and within or outside the urban growth boundary.

Property Eligibility Criteria to be Considered for an Extraterritorial Connection